Farmingville, NY - On November 9, Supervisor Ed Romaine (third from right) joined members of the All Long Island Car Clubs at their annual Food and Toy Drive in support of the Town of Brookhaven's INTERFACE program. The event kicked off the Brookhaven Town Youth Bureau's Thanksgiving and Christmas Food and Toy Drive. Members of four Long Island car clubs came together at the Pennysaver Amphitheater at Bald Hill in Farmingville to display their cars and collected unwrapped new toys, games and non-perishable food items. Nearly 1,000 club members spend months to plan and seek donations of food for Thanksgiving and new toys for Christmas to help needy families have a happier holiday season. This organization has been assisting the Youth Bureau for the past eight years.

INTERFACE is a partnership between "good corporate neighbors and the Town Of Brookhaven," united in a common effort to provide help to Brookhaven's less fortunate residents. Through volunteerism, INTERFACE provides goods and services to those in need. There are approximately 125 corporations, not-for-profit agencies, community and fraternal organizations that make up INTERFACE.
